

CEEOL for your Library's Scholars and Patrons

Central and Eastern European Online Library (www.ceeol.com)

The Central and Eastern European Online Library (CEEOL) is the leading repository offering a highly specialized and comprehensive collection of full text indexed documents in the fields of humanities and social science publications from and about Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe. Key peer-reviewed academic and independent journals from the region, effortless access and broad coverage gives CEEOL's collection its unique value and high quality.

Why CEEOL?

Essential Resource for researchers, scholars and students

- Access to indexed and archived Journals, eBooks and Grey Literature documents from and about Central, East and Southeast Europe provided by leading academic and independent publishers.
- Content is available in all relevant disciplines in the fields of humanities, social and political sciences, literatures
- 660,000+ indexed Journal articles in 30+ languages, eBooks and Grey Literature items are accessible in one repository
- Convenient access via IP authentication
- DRM free content
- No simultaneous access limitation
- No limitation on downloads
- Bibliographic records on publication and article level
- Full-text content of journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature
- Responsive web-design
- Mobile-accessible on any PDF-compatible device
- Add-on access for alumni
- Discovery and Linking Collaboration with Google and GoogleScholar, Primo and Summon (ProQuest), EBSCO Discovery Services, TDNet, OCLC, WikiLibrary
- Campus Activated Subscriber Access (CASA/ GoogleScholar®), providing seamless access to subscribed or purchased content for institutional users even when off campus or from a mobile device