We are now subscribers to the WEB VERSION of Scifinder. In order to use it, you must "open" an account in our workgroup "Bar-Ilan Chemistry users" (requirement: you must have a "biu.ac.il", "mail.biu.ac.il" or "live.biu.ac.il" email address). This is done as follows:

Go to this site:

and fill out all your personal information. Pay special attention to the Login name and password requirements. <see below>

After you send in your registration you will receive an email from registration@cas.org with a URL for confirmation (the link will expire after 48 hours if you do not confirm).

Once you have confirmed your registration you can access the "Web version of SciFinder" at the following URL:

http://scifinder.cas.org/

SciFinder can ONLY be accessed from registered Chemistry IP addresses. If you receive a "Computer NOT AUTHORIZED" error message, send your IP address to me at benzim@biu.ac.il. If it is a valid department computer, I will register its IP address with CAS.
